Dear...,

Praise the Lord that He has brought you to this exciting milestone of your high school graduation! With the Lord's help, you have worked hard to arrive at this momentous day, and we are so thankful to call you our son. What a blessing it has been to watch you grow up into a young man who loves the Lord and His Word. Truly there is no greater joy than to know that you have given your heart to Christ and are seeking to follow Him all the days of your life.

We are so grateful for the numerous ways we see Christ at work in your life! Your consistently cheerful attitude and willingness to serve others above yourself and without complaint are some that stand out to Dad and me. Likewise it has been a joy to watch you develop good and godly friendships over the years. I'll never forget the day long ago on the playground watching you call after some unknown child, "Friend, Friend!" May you continue to find true friends who love the Lord and encourage you to be more like Christ as you journey through life. And your love of music has added such richness to our home. It gives us great joy to hear you playing your guitar and singing to the Lord! We will miss those songs of praise coming from your corner of the house. May you continue to use your gifts to honor the Lord wherever He leads you. We are so thankful for you and look forward to what the Lord has in store as you begin your next big adventure of college! Please know that we love you deeply and will pray for you daily as you leave this place and go to make your mark on the world for the glory of God.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Dear.....

Here's to the class of 2020! What a wonderful occasion this is!! We are thrilled to be celebrating your graduation from Coram Deo. The blessings the Lord has given you, and your responses to them, have brought us a tremendous amount of joy as your parents. You have brought us joy (along with song, dance, and drama :) ever since you were little. The name "Chloe" means blooming or abounding. We didn't know that when we selected your name, and we hadn't even met you yet. But clearly it was the right name for you! You definitely abound in many things - beauty and poise, talent and aptitude, words and wit, ideas and plans. The Lord has used your abounding personality to bless many people, especially your family and friends. As you know, there are many areas in which you can abound - many interests, opportunities, abilities and passions. Life is full of choices and decisions and potential paths. So as you close this chapter of childhood and look ahead to your future, we remind you of this important truth. Life is a gift from the Lord, for you to enjoy and use for His glory. He will be with you every day, and one day He will bring these things to judgment. Hard work, tough times, sweet moments, and amazing achievements all will come and go. But you know what will matter in the end - if we feared God and kept His commandments. So by all means, keep abounding in whatever you do! Just be sure you are abounding in the work of the Lord, for that alone will never be in vain.

Congratulations on this great and happy accomplishment! We couldn't be more proud of you as a student, or more grateful for you as a daughter.

So much love, Mom and Dad

Dear...

You are a special ray of sunshine the Lord gifted our family after three rambunctious boys. Such position helped build a strong resolve within you to stand firm and to resist all sorts of shenanigans (it also had a softening effect upon my parenting and our overall characters 😊). Through many challenges and heartaches, you have been refined and continue to be matured to serve Christ's kingdom. We so appreciate your tender heart and your desire to help others. Above all, we rejoice that Jesus is your Lord and Savior. God has gifted you with abounding intelligence and wisdom that is full of potential to bring great insight and encouragement to your circles of influence when applied with love and humility. May the Lord continue to bless you with faithfulness and grace in the battles to come. May Christ Jesus will be your all-encompassing passion and satisfaction. May His Word be the light unto your path. Proceed forth with diligence to slay the dragon of ignorance!

With much Love in Christ,
Dad and Mom
